

This is a story about the identity of Jesus

- Where is he from?
- Who does he think he is?
- How can he do this stuff?
- What is my relationship to him?
- Can I see both the infinite love of Jesus for me and my desperate need for his mercy?
- What are the problems in my life that are really opportunities for God's power?
- Outside of church, at work, school, and with my friends, am I afraid to acknowledge my belief in Jesus?
- Am I afraid of surrendering the messiness of my life to Jesus?

How can I draw closer to Jesus and see him more clearly?
